Tulsa Trail Takes the Challenge

Cynthia Randina, Hopatcong Superintendent of Schools, Announces -

What do you get when you combine random acts of kindness, caring kids, and a brave principal? The Tulsa Trail ALS “Ice” Tea Challenge! During the week of September 29, the second and third grade students were challenged by their teachers to raise money for the ALS Association through random acts of kindness. Each student who donated money was treated to a cup of iced tea. As an additional bonus, if the students raised $200.00, Tulsa Trail principal, Mr. Byrne, volunteered to get doused with ice water! Not only did the students reach their goal, they surpassed it by raising $653.70 for the ALS Association. On Monday, October 6, the entire school gathered outside to see their favorite principal take on the ice bucket challenge. Good character shines through at Tulsa Trail School!

Mr. Byrne taking the challenge!
Water provided by Mrs. Kovach, Mrs. Ibaceta and third grader Rachel Meyer-Pflug who raised the most money in the school.

Way to go Mr. Byrne!
